LONDON -- Janus Henderson Group plc (NYSE: JHG; “Janus Henderson”, or the “Company”) today announced that it has secured the regulatory approvals and client consents required to complete its previously announced take-private transaction with Trian Fund Management, L.P. and its affiliated funds (“Trian”), and General Catalyst Group Management, LLC and its affiliated funds (“General Catalyst”). The receipt of required regulatory approvals and client consents represents a significant milestone toward the completion of the transaction with Trian and General Catalyst following the earlier announced resounding shareholder approval.

The take-private transaction with Trian and General Catalyst is expected to close on June 30, 2026, subject to the continued satisfaction of all closing conditions under the definitive agreement for the transaction.

At the closing, pursuant to the definitive agreement for the transaction dated December 21, 2025, as amended, holders of Janus Henderson shares not already owned or controlled by Trian will be converted into a right to receive $52.00 per share in cash. Upon completion of the transaction, Janus Henderson will become a privately held company, and its ordinary shares will be delisted from the NYSE.

Trian and General Catalyst have great respect for the Janus Henderson team and are excited to partner with them to invest in growth, as a private company for the benefit of its clients.
